Mr. Bishop (the rules being suspended) submitted the following resolution:

By the House of Delegates of Maryland:

Resolved, That any legislation which is in its tendency calculated to weaken the respect of any portion of our community, for the Christian Sabbath is fraught with danger, not only to the common interests and happiness of the people of Maryland, but of the nation.

On motion of Mr. Neale,

The rules being further suspended,

Ordered That Mr. Welch have leave of absence till Tuesday next for the purpose of visiting his family.

Mr. Spicer (the rules being yet further suspended),

Ordered, That Mr. Whiteford be granted leave of absence
